Ethos

For children and young people with Additional Learning needs:

- We aim to promote and sustain a whole school approach to wellbeing, which gives recognition to the strong links between wellbeing and outcomes for our children and young people.
- Every child is equal, valued and unique. We aim to provide an environment where all pupils feel safe and can flourish. We will respond to individuals in ways which take into account their varied life experiences and particular needs.
- We are committed to providing an education that enables all pupils to make progress so that they achieve their best, become confident individuals living fulfilling lives and make a successful transition into adulthood.
- We are committed to promoting and providing all children and young people with a person centred education, paying attention to what is important to and what is important for them.

Aims and Objectives

As a school, we will;

- develop effective whole school provision for children and young people in all areas of need;
- take into account the views, wishes and feelings of children and young people and ensure their full participation where possible;
- recognise the views of parents/carers to ensure they are fully engaged in decision making;
- ensure a clear process for identifying, assessing, planning, providing and reviewing for children and young people who have ALN with them and their parents/carers at the centre;
- provide a curriculum that is broad and balanced to engage all children and young people at all levels and to promote an inclusive culture of learning;
- ensure equality of provision for all children and young people, including but not exclusive to, those with ALN;
- enable children and young people with ALN to achieve their potential;
- provide and access advice and support for all staff working with children and young people with ALN.

Partnership with Parents / Carers

The child is at the centre of everything we do and we will work with families to achieve the best outcomes for their child.

Our school is committed to establishing and maintaining good working relationships with the families of all our pupils and recognises the importance of a partnership between home and school. Parents are kept informed of children's progress and are encouraged to play an active part in their children's learning and to support targets set.

Parents with concerns about their child should discuss these first with the class teacher who will inform the Additional Learning Needs Coordinator if necessary. Parents are fully involved in the review process. Written information is in accessible formats and sufficient notice is given for meetings to enable parents/carers time to prepare.

Pupil Participation:

The views of all pupils are valued. A person centred approach is adopted throughout our school, placing the child/young person at the heart of everything we do. Pupils with ALN are supported to be involved in decision making and to be able to express any concerns.

Definition of ALN

At our school we use the definition of ALN from the Code (Draft 2021)

- providing high quality teaching for all children setting high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge pupils
- assessing pupil's needs and planning appropriate adjustments, interventions and support to match the outcomes identified for the pupil
- regularly reviewing the impact of these adjustments, interventions and support, including pupils with ALN in the classroom, through providing an appropriately differentiated curriculum

- retaining responsibility for the child, including working with the child on a daily basis
- making themselves aware of the school's ALN policy and procedures for identification, monitoring and supporting pupils with ALN
- directly liaising with parents/carers of children with ALN
- managing behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment

Learning Support Assistants (LSAs) and Teaching Assistants (TAs) are responsible for:

- supporting groups or individual pupils in accessing the curriculum under the direction of the class teacher and/or the ALNCo
- providing feedback to the class teacher regarding children's progress in class lessons.
- providing feedback to the class teacher and/or the ALNCo as appropriate, regarding children's progress in achieving individual targets
- delivering (and reporting back on) specific intervention programs under the direction of the ALNCo and/or class teacher

Provision for children with ALN

Every educational/ school practitioner is a teacher of every child and young person. Teaching therefore a whole school responsibility.

Universal Provision

We adopt a 'high quality teaching' approach. High quality teaching, differentiated for individual pupils, is available to all pupils who have or may not have ALN. Reasonable adjustments will be made to support our pupils.

The key characteristics of high quality teaching are:

- A broad, balanced and relevant curriculum with high engagement of pupils
- High quality teaching that is differentiated
- High expectations of every pupil
- Appropriate use of teacher questioning, modelling and explaining

Targeted Universal Provision

There may be times where some of our pupils will require more support with their learning through a targeted approach. Where it is decided a pupil will have Targeted Provision, we will talk to the parents and their child. We will agree what intervention will be put in place, set small step targets, as well as the expected impact on progress, development or behaviour, along with a clear date for review. The class teacher will remain responsible for working with the child. If a pupil continues to make progress accessing targeted provision this can continue as required.

ALN Determination

If a pupil does not make progress according to the outcomes described over a sustained period of time school will seek specialist expertise. This will inform future provision. School may liaise with the following services - Educational Psychology Service, School Health, Physiotherapy Service, Occupational Therapy Service, and, when appropriate, Social Services and Looked After Children Team.

The appropriate processes as documented in the statutory ALN Code will then be followed. If deemed appropriate, an Individual Development Plan (IDP) will be formulated.

Review

The effectiveness of the provision and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress will be reviewed on an agreed date. Person centred reviews will be carried out in accordance with person centred processes through a collaboration, placing the child/young person and their family at the centre.

The class teacher or subject teacher, working with the ALNCo, will revise the provision in light of the child's progress. Outcomes created from the person centred review will take account of the aspirations of the child/young person and their family.

Managing pupils needs / IDP's

Formal person-centred review meetings for children and young people with an IDP will take place, where parents and children and young people will be involved in reviewing progress and setting new person-centred outcomes. School practitioners are responsible for evidencing progress according to the outcomes described in the child's plan (IDP).

Supporting children with a medical condition

Each case will be discussed on an individual basis to ensure appropriate and personalised care is in place. Where a pupil also has ALN, their provision will be planned and delivered in a coordinated way with their individual healthcare plan.

Looked after children (LAC)

The ALNCo and designated teacher meet on a termly basis to ensure that arrangements are in place for supporting pupils that are looked after who also have ALN.

Early Dispute Resolution

Initially an attempt will be made to resolve a dispute about ALN provision at school level. Parents who are dissatisfied with the school's provision for additional learning needs should in the first instance report this to the class teacher. If they remain dissatisfied, they should then make an appointment to see the ALNCo/Headteacher. Should this fail to resolve the problem, the matter can be reported to the school's Governor for additional learning needs, who may be contacted through the School Office. If parents are still not happy after using the school's complaints procedure, they should then contact the Local Authority for advice, support and information.

School will inform parents/carers of the local authority's commissioned independent disagreement resolution service.

If dispute is regarding ALN determination, parents/carers should follow the process stated within the determination letter.

Staff development

In order to maintain and develop the quality of teaching and provision to support the strengths and needs of all pupils, all staff are encouraged to undertake training and development. The Senior Leadership Team reviews the training needs of staff through Performance Management and pupil progress meetings to plan appropriate professional development in relation to ALN.

The ALNCo ensures staff are informed of local and national developments in relation to ALN and Inclusion.

Monitoring and Evaluating ALN

Provision for pupils with ALN is a matter for the school as a whole. The board of governors, in consultation with the Headteacher, has a legal responsibility for determining the policy and provision for pupils with additional learning needs. It is a statutory obligation of the school to keep their provision under review to ensure that the needs of all pupils are being met effectively

Admission Arrangements

Please refer to the information contained in the school's Admissions Policy, which can be accessed on the school website. The admission arrangements for all pupils are in accordance with national legislation, including the Equality Act 2010. This includes pupils with any level of ALN.

Transition Arrangements

Transition is carefully planned. In order to ensure successful transition both within school and from setting/school/college to setting/school/college, the young person, parents/carers will be fully involved in the planning for the transfer to the new setting. Key information about ALN provision will be shared with the next setting/school/college through the review process.

How is this policy evaluated?

This policy is subject to a yearly cycle of monitoring, evaluation and review by the Senior Leadership Team, ALNCo and ALN Governor, and is approved by the Full Governing Body.

The ALNCo, Headteacher and Governing body annually evaluate the effectiveness of the policy against the principles and objectives set out in the policy.

This policy was reviewed by Emma Jones and adopted by the Wellbeing Safeguarding Committee on behalf of Governing Body on 16 October 2025.

Support for pupils with Additional Learning Needs (ALN)

A Person-centred approach is adopted within our Additional Learning Needs (ALN) system. It puts the child at the centre of identifying their needs, planning their provision and reviewing this.

Our overarching ethos to person-centred practice means making sure that children are involved in:

- Identifying what is important to and for them.
- Planning their provision and outlining their hopes and aspirations.
- Explaining how they wish to realise their hopes and aspirations.

Graduated Response

We use a graduated response when identifying the level of support that a learner requires.

- ❖ Universal Provision
- ❖ Targeted Universal Provision
- ❖ Additional Learning Provision

Universal Provision (UP):

For the majority of children at our school, their needs can be met through high quality teaching and learning in the classroom. Differentiated teaching and support in the classroom is used to ensure learners progress.

Targeted Universal Provision (TUP):

Targeted intervention may be provided at a whole class, small group or individual level. It is monitored and tracked in line with our school procedures and could be a short or longer term provision. Pupils may have a Booster Plan or individual Small Steps Targets to outline the support that they are receiving.

Additional Learning Provision (ALP):

The ALN Code says that a learner has Additional Learning Needs (ALN) 'if he or she has a learning difficulty or disability (whether the learning difficulty or disability arises from a medical condition or otherwise) which calls for 'additional learning provision' (ALP)

A small number of our children will have Additional Learning Needs (ALN), which requires Additional Learning Provision (ALP) ALP is additional to or different from the support we routinely offer to our learners.

If a child does not appear to be making progress, then ALP may be required. This will involve the needs of the pupil being identified in a person-centred way and could lead to enhanced and alternative provision being provided to support the pupil in making progress. Children who access ALP are classed as having Additional Learning Needs (ALN) and will require an Individual Development Plan (IDP)

Individual Development Plans (IDP)

Children learn in different ways and their needs may change over time. An IDP provides an ongoing process of:

- identifying needs and providing different support as necessary,
- sharing information,
- planning, taking action and reviewing progress.

Depending on your child's individual progress the support they receive could be increased, reduced or changed over time. This means that earlier decisions and actions are revisited, refined and revised to help achieve a growing understanding of your child. It also supports them in making progress and helps them to realise their hopes and aspirations.

The majority of IDPs will be written and maintained by our school. However, in some more complex cases we may request that the Local Authority consider the needs of the child. The Local Authority may write and then either direct us at school to maintain the plan or maintain it themselves. Reviews of IDPs (Individual Development Plans) take place in a person-centred way.
