Welsh Phrase of the week: Syniad da! (Good idea!)

Super Learning Week - Careers Week

We have enjoyed a very busy Super Learning Week this week. Thank you to all of our volunteer visitors who came to school on Tuesday to talk with pupils about their jobs/careers. The pupils went to see our visitors at a Careers Fair in the hall. The pupils enjoyed talking to a variety of people who have different careers including a nurse, doctor, librarian, secondary school teacher, sports coach, hairdresser, Tesco colleague, Social Worker, Family Support workers, and Police Officers which included a look around the Police van. In the afternoon, pupils enjoyed meeting Green Watch, Wrexham, with their fire engine, meeting the fire crew and having a tour around the vehicle, with some of our younger classes having the chance to use the fire-hose. Our grateful thanks to all of our visitors for giving up their time and helping our pupils to find out about different jobs. Class teachers have put up some photographs of what the children have been learning on ClassDojo to see our busy week. I was delighted with the comments from our visitors about the brilliant questions and good manners our pupils used.

Remembrance/Poppy Appeal

We will be selling poppies and poppy novelty items in school after half term to raise money for the British Legion Appeal. Our Head Boy and Head Girl have been invited to read out some of the names of the fallen at the Cefn Mawr Cenotaph during the Remembrance Service on Sunday, 9th November and our Deputy Head Boy and Girl have been invited to lay a poppy wreath of remembrance - more details to follow. Our school choir has also been invited to attend the Remembrance Service celebrations at the George Edwards hall after the service. We have been busy practising our songs in after school - the children are doing a fantastic job.
